

SAN FRANCISCO' 35th ANNUAL UNION STREET Eco-Urban FESTIVAL'S
WAITERS RACE

What is it?

Join us for the Union Street Festival Waiters Race on Sunday, June 5th, 2011 at 1:00 pm. This is the third annual Wait/Bar Staff Competition, held at the Union Street Festival. We are encouraging teams of three people, representing any San Francisco Bar and/or Restaurant to compete. The event consist of two teams on the course at the same time; one at the bottom of Webster Street Hill (at Union Street) and one at the top of Webster Street Hill (at Green Street).

A member from each team will start at the official Lipton Ice Tea filling station on either end of the course. They will open a Lipton Ice Tea, pour it into a cup and run up or down the hill (approximately 400 linear feet), with the first cup on their tray. Once they reach the second filling station, they hand the tray to a team-mate, who will open another Lipton Ice Tea and add a second cup to the tray. The second team-mate will then run up or down the hill, hand the tray to the third team-mate, who will then complete the heat with a total of three cups on the tray. The team that completes the third and final leg in the shortest amount of time, will be declared the winner and move on to the next level.

Where and When it is?

Sunday, June 5th, 2011, 1:00 pm on Webster Street, from Green Street to Union Street, San Francisco

Why should we do this?

This is a completely free event. Bar/Restaurant Mangers and Owners: This is great way to promote and market your own establishments during one of the largest Festivals in San Francisco. Teams are encouraged to dress up and represent! The team with the best costumes will receive a special prize.

Are there any prizes?

Yes! There will be $500 in prizes and a number of surprises for the winners.
