Overview

WHAT

In its 36th year, The Union Street Festival is one of San Francisco’s largest annual free events, and this year it's again going Green. The Festival which attracts in excess of 100,000 attendees each year from all over the United States is for the second year in a row is adding an eco-friendly theme.

San Francisco is forward thinking city and the Union Street (Eco-Urban) Festival helps promote the value of Green thinking in all aspects of our day to day lives.

This year the east entrance of the Festival, (beginning at Gough Street) will feature an organic food, garden and home demonstration stage, arts and crafts created with recycled and sustainable materials and eco-friendly exhibits. Additionally, the Festival showcases 150 arts & crafts booths, 20 gourmet food booths, two stages of live entertainment and bistro style cafes.

The Festival is held on San Francisco’s fashionable Union Street where historic Victorians have been transformed into popular boutiques, art galleries and restaurants. There are over 100 staff members on-site to assist exhibitors and the public. Parking is available to exhibitors three blocks from the event site.

WHERE

The Festival is held on Union Street between Gough & Steiner Streets in San Francisco's Cow Hollow district. The district was one of the first neighborhoods in San Francisco to convert its historic Victorians into popular boutiques, art galleries and restaurants. From an architectural perspective, the distinct turn-of-the-century atmosphere makes a walk along Union Street a delightful journey back in time. The atmosphere along modern day Union Street is anything but old-fashioned. The street is where some of the City's most fashionable, upscale residents live and play. Union Street ~ Always a Celebration!

WHEN

Saturday June 2 & Sunday June 3, 2012 ~ 10 am to 6 pm

BY WHO

BAY AREA DEMO-GRAPHICS

The Festival is attended by people from all over nation and the nine-county San Francisco Bay Area. The Bay Area represents one of the world's great regional economies. It successfully competes in the global market as a knowledge-based economy powered by its wealth of research, technology, and innovation. If the Bay Area were a country it would rank about 20th in the world

The Bay Area's population consists of 6.5 million people within three metropolitan centers: San Francisco, San Jose and Oakland. The gross regional product exceeds $200 billion and ranks fifth in the U.S. The region is top ranked nationally for its proportion of scientists, lawyers, computer programmers, musicians, engineers, business consultants, authors, physicians and artists.

San Francisco's Union Street is a business district with typical historic San Francisco architecture where you will find examples of both old and modern structures sharing the avenues. The main thoroughfare is a retail destination for visitors and residents alike with the Victorians lining the street sharing it with buildings built in the 1960's. Several short alleys branch off into dead ends which make for an interesting walking and sightseeing experience.
